Dear AFS Members

For your information.

The AFS Board received a complaint from a club stating that Mr David KOLOANE interfered with one their athletes and mentioned to him that he was placed at the 2019 Comrades Marathon as a Referee. By that time, the Comrades Association confirmed that no placements have been done yet.

On the FS Board meeting of 14 May 2019, the AFS Board took the following decisions.

1. That Mr KOLOANE's actions brought the sport of Athletics in disrepute, by interfering with athletes from other clubs and lying to them that he was placed as a referee at the 2019 Comrades Marathon. Therefore, violating AFS R&R Clause 4.4 and 4.5 IAAF Code of Ethics. ASA Rules & Regulations; ASA Integrity Code for the South African athletics family Chapter 7 clause C1, Integrity, clause 11.
2. That Mr KOLOANE misuse his position as an ASA Level 2 Technical Official.
3. The AFS Board took the decision to implement AFS Constitution Clause 8, 20.5 and 20.7 and suspend Mr David KOLOANE for an indefinite period pending his disciplinary hearing.
4. Until such time he will stay suspended.
